Executive summary

- As part of this contract Baxter Healthcare will employ two biomedical engineers in Tasmania and support the employment of a number of logistics and support staff in SME partners.
- Baxter will work closely with a number of Tasmanian SMEs to ensure the renal community receives exceptional service – at both the hospital centre as well as for the over 70 patients who are managed at home. This supports over 200 employees in local Tasmanian businesses.
- The supply of the renal service across Tasmania is dependent on the support and service provided by local Tasmanian small businesses who work closely with Baxter.
- A recent PVC recycling innovation offers environmental benefits together with supporting a local recycling company and offers further work to a local transport organisation.
