Executive summary

- For in excess of 19 years Hobart Day Surgery (HDS) has provided clinical staff with a preferred place of local employment and national presence. It currently employs or contracts with 17 full time and approximately 180 part-time and casual staff.
- HDS is currently advertising for part-time and casual registered nurses, and will be seeking further administrative staff once renovations are completed. HDS has previously increased its physical footprint twofold and its theatre capacity by 50% (all employing local Hobart contractors). Future expansions are being planned.
- HDS has a national reputation as a leader in acquiring the latest surgical technologies which has the added benefit of staff in Hobart to “keep ahead of the curve” in relation to national (and international) surgical clinical techniques.
- HDS will use its (expanding) existing facilities, suppliers and staff to fulfil the contract. Owing to the well-established and efficient specialised nature of the services provided existing supply chains will be maintained. Additional nursing staff may be employed and upskilled where necessary.
