Ricky Bolton, Baron Consulting Pty Ltd

Baron Consulting is focused on establishing collaborative relationships with clients to be a trusted Probity Advisor.

Ricky Bolton founded Baron Consulting to service an unmet need in the government, not-for-profit and business sectors for probity consulting services.

With professional careers in the military, health, government, law and consulting spanning over 30 years, Ricky brings a wealth of complementary skills and experience to his clients.

Ricky aims to provide assistance, capability uplift, and actionable probity advice to his clients.

Ricky has provided probity services to the Victorian Government, statutory authorities, not-for-profit organisations, local councils, and the private sector across a wide range of procurements (including health, education, IT, and building and construction projects).
